

Health Sciences Library 2019 Milestones and Accomplishments

Teaching and Learning

Subject Guides

37

subject guides

21%

increase in usage
over 2019

56,898

total views

Partnered with the School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences to provide resources supporting physical therapy and athletic training curricula.

Research & Education

287

educational sessions taught

3,299

total session attendance

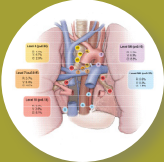

Research and Innovation

Medical Visuals

created

163

illustrations

for patient education
and scholarly publications

printed

1,269

posters

350 cloth
919 paper

Sponsored 90-day online scientific writing pilot course, saving graduate students, faculty and staff over $12,500 in registration fees.

100%

of seats filled within 2 days

Systematic Reviews

67

librarian consults 91% increase
since 2017

616

reviews conducted in Covidence
systematic review
management tool

Conducted a series of systematic review workshops targeting medical students conducting summer research projects.

Outreach and Engagement

Received All of Us Ambassador grant to accelerate research and increase health literacy in under-represented populations. The award is the HSL's largest grant to date.

Healthy Community Days
Community Festivals
Farmers Markets

The Library for Health Information Made

900+

Community Connections

Conferences and Exhibits

Columbus Metro
Library Events

Artist Ann Hamilton included MHC artifacts in special exhibit, when an object reaches for your hand, to celebrate the university's 150th anniversary.

image courtesy of Ann Hamilton

HSL leaders hosted Bon Secours Mercy Health librarians to help build collaborations, collections and talent for the new Healthy State Alliance.

Resource Stewardship

Print materials moved from Prior to Ackerman without library closure, to prepare for new study space. Materials remain available via courier.

100,000

print volumes moved

1,000

bookcarts used

33

truckloads filled

Thank You to Our Donors!

329

donors over the last five years

42%

have given multiple times

New fund (#316711) created for the Library of Health Information, a vital resource for patients and their families.

HSL Faculty and Staff Serve Organizations Across the Globe:

