MASKS REQUIRED
MASKS ON BEFORE ENTERING THE BUILDING
Let’s all do our part to keep each other safe and healthy. Masks are required at all times in the building. Sanitize and wash your hands often.

KEEP YOUR DISTANCE
MAINTAIN PROPER SOCIAL DISTANCING
6 ft. distancing is required in all library spaces. Please observe all maximum numbers in rooms and elevators, and do not move the furniture.

REduced LIBRARY SERVICES
LIMITED OCCUPANCY GUIDELINES IN PLACE
For everyone’s health and comfort, library occupancy and services are limited. Up-to-date library information is on our reopening page at go.osu.edu/reopen.

WHO CAN ACCESS THE BUILDING?
For autumn, access will be limited to students from the Colleges of Dentistry, Medicine/SHRS, Nursing, Optometry and Public Health, as well as residents and fellows.

Access will be via Medical Center or BuckID badge-swipe only. Enabling and/or allowing others to enter the building will result in the loss of your library access privileges.

Note: no food and only covered drinks will be allowed in the building at this time.

HOW LONG WILL ACCESS BE LIMITED?
Library access will continue to be limited as long as physical distancing and hospital visitation guidelines are in place.
